REFLECTING ON THE HOLY SPIRIT

This past week on retreat, the following hymn helped me more clearly see our special call from the Spirit of God. I offer it for your reflection as you follow the Holy Spirit leading you in your Christian life. May God bless you in all you do in the service and in the name of Jesus.

The Spirit Sends us Forth

*The Spirit sends us forth to serve;
We go in Jesus' name,
To bring glad tidings to the poor,
God's favor to proclaim.*

*We go to comfort those who mourn
And set the burdened free;
Where hope is dim, to share a dream,
And help the blind to see.*

*We go to be the hands of Christ,
To scatter joy like seed,
And, all our days, to cherish life,
To do the loving deed.*

*Then let us go to serve in peace,
The gospel to proclaim.
God's Spirit has empowered us:
We go in Jesus' name.*

CROWNING OF THE BLESSED MOTHER:

Holy Family fourth grade Religious Education Students wish to extend an invitation to join them in song and prayer as we crown Our Blessed Mother. The crowning will take place in the grassy area by the school classrooms following the 4:30 p.m. Mass Saturday April 30th. Don't miss this opportunity to share in this beautiful tribute to Mary. Call Bonnie at 726-7217 for info.

CATHOLIC LOBBY DAY 2005:

On Tuesday, April 26, at 9:30 am, concerned Catholics from all over California will gather at the Crest Theater in downtown Sacramento for the opening of an urgent call to action sponsored by the California Catholic Conference. We will celebrate Mass together, learn about issues that are important to us as Catholic citizens, rally at the Capitol, and dialogue with our legislators. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office or by calling Sue Schneider at the diocesan Office of Social Service Ministry, 733-0253. The registration fee of $5 includes the cost of lunch.

HOLY FAMILY CELEBRATES THE SACRAMENTS:

Congratulations to all the children of Holy Family Parish and School who received their First Holy Communion on Saturday, April 23rd, both at a special morning Mass for the second grade classes and at the 4:30 pm Mass for older children. In this Year of the Eucharist, may you come to know all the graces of the true presence of Christ.

Other members of our family are in the final days of preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation. Adults from Holy Family will be participating in a Diocesan celebration on Sunday, May 7, at Our Lady of Assumption, while seventh graders from our school and faith formation will celebrate their confirmation here at the 6:00 pm Mass on Sunday, May 15, with Bishop Quinn presiding. More to follow . . .

HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL'S junior high students who have been enrolled in a fine arts-oriented elective will perform this Friday, April 29, 7 p.m., in the Holy Family Community Center. The centerpiece of the evening will be the Drama Group's performance of a play which combines Sherlock Holmes and The Pirates of Penzance.

The Choral and Guitar ensembles will also perform, and the Visual Arts students will display their work. All parishioners are invited to attend this cost-free event!

CELEBRATE MOTHERS AND SHOW RESPECT FOR LIFE WITH ROSES:

On Mother's Day weekend the Sacramento Life Center will be holding its annual Mother's Day Rose Sale. Single, long-stemmed roses, individually packaged, will be sold for $5.00 after all the Masses. Please consider honoring a mother and celebrating the sanctity of life by purchasing a rose on Mother's Day weekend. At Holy Family, the roses will be available through the Knights of Columbus. For more information, please contact Larry Larsen at 961-1036. Thank You.

ALL NIGHT VIGIL FOR LIFE: There will be an All Night Vigil for Life May 6th & 7th at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church, 5751 Locust Ave., Carmichael. The Vigil begins Friday with 8:00 pm Mass and ends Saturday with 7:00 am Mass. Please join us for an hour or more or spend the night. For info, call June at 967-9158.

Stewardship
~ a way of life ~

APRIL BLOOD DRIVE:

Our 2nd blood drive of the year is being held today, Sunday, April 24, 2005, from 9:45 am to 1:45 pm in the Holy Family Community Center gymnasium. Please make the time to give the gift of life! Please call Tony DeCillis, blood drive chairperson, at 726-5729 if you have any questions.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS – SPECIAL COLLECTION:

Today's second collection will be taken for Catholic Home Missions. Because of the shortage of priests, sisters and brothers, there are many places in the United States, especially in rural and mountainous locations, where the Catholic Church struggles to keep parishes open and to educate children in the faith. This collection supports and strengthens the Church in America. A portion of the collection will also support the effort by the Church for Black and Native American Indians.

WELCOMING MINISTRY:

The Welcoming Ministry is in need of volunteers to become greeters at two evening Masses, Saturday at 4:30 pm and Sunday at 6:00 pm, and the noon Mass on Sunday. This is a very rewarding ministry, and does not take up much of your time. If you regularly attend any of these Masses and would like to do the Lord's work as a Greeter, please call Anita Marsolais at 723-1775 for more information. Thank You!

SENIOR COMPANION NEEDED:

A "senior companion" is needed to visit Peggy Edwards at Citrus Heights Terrace. Please call Debbie Edwards, her niece, at 419-3228 for more information.

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY:

The Pastoral Council is re-organizing the Bereavement Ministry. We need the help of parishioners to offer the receptions that follow funerals and memorial services. Our goal is to have 4 or 5 core groups consisting of 6 to 8 men and women that can take responsibility for receptions on a rotating basis. This ministry not only lifts a great burden from the shoulders of the family, but helps to demonstrate the unity of the parish family as we care for each other in a time of great need. If you would like to help with this vital ministry please call the Parish Office at 723-2494.

WELCOME CATHOLICS RETURNING HOME:

If you or someone you know has been away from the Church for whatever reason, we invite you to consider attending this special series called CATHOLICS
RETURNING HOME. This ministry is designed to reach out and invite non-participating and inactive Catholics to return "Home to the Catholic Church" and resume active practice of their faith. We will meet for two more Thursdays at 7:00 pm in the Holy Family Community Center. There will be informal discussions and straightforward information about the Catholic Faith. For more details, call Mike Allison at 723-2205.

HABEMUS PAPUM!

Excerpts from the first message of His Holiness Benedict XVI at the end of the eucharistic concelebration with the members of the College of Cardinals in the Sistine Chapel – Wednesday, 20 April 2005

Grace and peace in abundance to all of you! In my soul there are two contrasting sentiments in these hours. On the one hand, a sense of inadequacy and human turmoil for the responsibility entrusted to me yesterday as the Successor of the Apostle Peter in this See of Rome, with regard to the Universal Church. On the other hand I sense within me profound gratitude to God Who - as the liturgy makes us sing - does not abandon His flock, but leads it throughout time, under the guidance of those whom He has chosen as vicars of His Son, and made pastors.

“Dear Ones, this intimate recognition for a gift of divine mercy prevails in my heart in spite of everything. I consider this a grace obtained for me by my venerated predecessor, John Paul II. It seems I can feel his strong hand squeezing mine; I seem to see his smiling eyes and listen to his words, addressed to me especially at this moment: ‘Do not be afraid!’

“The death of the Holy Father John Paul II, and the days which followed, were for the Church and for the entire world an extraordinary time of grace. The great pain for his death and the void that it left in all of us were tempered by the action of the Risen Christ, which showed itself during long days in the choral wave of faith, love and spiritual solidarity, culminating in his solemn funeral.

“How can one not feel sustained by this witness? How can one not feel the encouragement that comes from this event of grace?

“Surprising every prevision I had, Divine Providence, through the will of the venerable Cardinal Fathers, called me to succeed this great Pope. I have been thinking in these hours about what happened in the region of Caesarea of Philippi two thousand years ago: I seem to hear the words of Peter: ‘You are Christ, the Son of the living God,’ and the solemn affirmation of the Lord: ‘You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church ... I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven’.

“You are Christ! You are Peter! It seems I am reliving this very Gospel scene; I, the Successor of Peter, repeat with trepidation the anxious words of the fisherman from Galilee and I listen again with intimate emotion to the reassuring promise of the divine Master. If the weight of the responsibility that now lies on my poor shoulders is enormous, the divine power on which I can count is surely immeasurable: ‘You are Peter and on this rock I will build my Church’. Electing me as the Bishop of Rome, the Lord wanted me as his Vicar, he wished me to be the ‘rock’ upon which everyone may rest with confidence. I ask him to make up for the poverty of my strength, that I may be a courageous and faithful pastor of His flock, always docile to the inspirations of His Spirit.

“Before my eyes is, in particular, the witness of Pope John Paul II. He leaves us a Church that is more courageous, freer, younger. A Church that, according to his teaching and example, looks with serenity to the past and is not afraid of the future. With the Great Jubilee the Church was introduced into the new millennium carrying in her hands the Gospel, applied to the world through the authoritative re-reading of Vatican Council II. Pope John Paul II justly indicated the Council as a ‘compass’ with which to orient ourselves in the vast ocean of the third millennium. Also in his spiritual testament he noted: ‘I am convinced that for a very long time the new generations will draw upon the riches that this council of the 20th century gave us’.

“I too, as I start in the service that is proper to the Successor of Peter, wish to affirm with force my decided will to pursue the commitment to enact Vatican Council II, in the wake of my predecessors and in faithful continuity with the millennia-old tradition of the Church. Precisely this year is the 40th anniversary of the conclusion of this conciliar assembly (December 8, 1965). With the passing of time, the conciliar documents have not lost their timeliness; their teachings have shown themselves to be especially pertinent to the new exigencies of the Church and the present globalized society.

“Mane nobiscum, Domine!’ Stay with us Lord! This invocation, which forms the dominant theme of John Paul II’s Apostolic Letter for the Year of the Eucharist, is the prayer that comes spontaneously from my heart as I turn to begin the ministry to which Christ has called me. Like Peter, I too renew to Him my unconditional promise of faithfulness. He alone I intend to serve as I dedicate myself totally to the service of His Church.

Apostolic Blessing "Urbi et Orbi" (April 19, 2005)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

After the great Pope John Paul II, the Cardinals have elected me, a simple and humble labourer in the vineyard of the Lord.

The fact that the Lord knows how to work and to act even with inadequate instruments comforts me, and above all I entrust myself to your prayers.

Let us move forward in the joy of the Risen Lord, confident of his unfailing help. The Lord will help us and Mary, his Most Holy Mother, will be on our side. Thank you.
