"They were all astounded and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this." Mark 2:12

St. Josephine Bakhita

This month, the Catholic Church in the United States joins the rest of the nation in celebrating Black History month. As part of this year's celebration, the Diocese of Sacramento held a special celebration of the life of St. Josephine Bakhita, canonized by Pope John Paul II in 2000. Here is her story...

Bakhita was born in Eastern Sudan around 1869 and was captured by slave traders, who named her Bakhita, which means "lucky one".

Bakhita came from a happy, loving, well to do tribal family. When Bakhita was about nine years old, slave traders captured her. During the course of her life, she was sold five times before she received her freedom. She was subjected to many cruel tortures, yet despite the cruel treatments, she had no resentment or bitterness in her heart, but prayed for those who hurt her.

When Bakhita's fourth owner, an agent of the Italian Consul in Sudan, was recalled to Italy, she accompanied him, and was later "given" to fellow countrymen, the Micheli Family, who needed a nanny for their child in Mirano Veneto, Italy.

It was in Italy at the age of 21 that the Canossian Sisters in Venice introduced Bakhita to the Catholic faith. Accompanying the five-year-old child she cared for to the Sister's boarding school in Venice, Bakhita received religious instruction along with the child. When the child's parents returned from Sudan to take them both back to Africa, Bakhita insisted that she remain in Italy to complete her religious instruction and to practice her faith.

Bakhita was now a free woman - free to serve the One she loved. Approximately two months later, on January 9, 1890, Bakhita was baptized and confirmed and was given the names Josephine and Margaret and Bakhita. She also made her first Holy Communion on the same day. From then on, she was often seen kissing the baptismal font and saying: "Here, I became a daughter of God!"

On the feast of the Immaculate Conception, December 8, 1896, Sr. Josephine made her final vows at the Motherhouse in Verona. This African flower, who knew the anguish of kidnapping and slavery, bloomed marvelously in Italy, in response to God's grace, with the Daughters of Charity.

For another 50 years, this humble Daughter of Charity, a true witness of the love of God, lived in the community in Schio, engaged in various services: cooking, sewing, embroidery and attending to the door. When she was on duty at the door, she would gently lay her hands on the heads of the children who daily attended the Canossian schools and caress them.

Her humility, her simplicity and her constant smile won the hearts of all the citizens. Her sisters in the community esteemed her for her inalterable sweet nature, her exquisite goodness and her deep desire to make the Lord known. "Be good, love the Lord, pray for those who do not know Him. What a great grace it is to know God!"

In 1935, the Sisters asked Sr. Josephine to go on a speaking tour to tell her faith story as a form of missionary work. The shy and modest Sister reluctantly consented, as she disliked being the center of attention. She relayed her witness to captivated audiences for the next year and always did so "For God's Glory." For the next two years, she served as the doorkeeper at the Sister's missionary novitiate in Milan.

As she grew older she experienced long, painful years of sickness. Mother Bakhita continued to witness to faith, goodness and Christian hope. To those who visited her and asked how she was, she would respond with a smile: "As the Master desires."

She celebrated a joyous golden 50th anniversary as a religious with nearly the whole town present, congratulating and thanking her for all her work.

As Bakhita's life drew to a close, she began to spend more time with the Lord, gazing upon Him in the tabernacle or on the crucifix and praying. She spent much time in prayer for her fellow missionary Sisters. "At times, I have sleepless nights: then I feel bored and sad. But I do not pay any attention to it: I offer my suffering and I feel happy. I thank God for the many graces granted me, happy to have something to offer in return, as a token of my gratitude."

As she was nearing the end of her life on this earth, some of her Sisters, expressed their concerns and fears about God's judgement to her, to which Bakhita replied, "When a person loves another, she wishes to be together [with him], so why be afraid? Death takes us to God." She added, "I am going slowly, slowly towards eternity... I carry two bags with me; one contains my sins, the other, much heavier, contains the infinite merits of Jesus Christ. When I appear before the tribunal of God, I will cover my ugly bag with the merits of Our Lady. Then, I shall open the other and will present to the eternal Father the merits of His Son Jesus. I will tell Him: "Now, judge from what you see."

Mother Bakhita breathed her last on February 8, 1947 at the Canossian Convent, Schio, surrounded by the Sisters. A crowd quickly gathered at the Convent to have a last look and to ask for her protection from heaven. The fame of her sanctity has spread to all the continents and many are those who receive graces through her intercession.

Pope John Paul II canonized St. Josephine Bakhita on October 1, 2000.

"Be good, love the Lord, pray for those who do not know Him. What a great grace it is to know God!"

Forgiveness, too, is a gift from God. Freed from the paralysis of sin, the man in today's Gospel was able to stand and give witness to the power of God. How do I let sin cripple me? Am I a good steward of the gift of God's forgiveness?

Health Ministry

As we move into the latter half of heart month, we hope you have taken or will take the opportunity to participate in the Heart Health educational activities presented by Mercy Hospitals of Sacramento. If you missed the information, call (721-0388) or drop by the Health Ministry office for a schedule of classes.
Thank you to those parishioners who have agreed to assist us with Health Ministry. We will meet in the Health Ministry Office on Wed. March 1st at 9:30 am (Ash Wednesday) to discuss ideas about the role of Health Ministry here at Holy Family. The question is how can we most effectively network with other established ministries to bring wholeness of body, mind and spirit to the Holy Family Faith Community? What God given gifts or talent can you share with us (computer skills, make telephone calls to homebound folks, drive patients to doctor appointments, etc.)?
Using the eyes, ears, minds and hands of interested parishioners, we will attempt to focus on health promotion and disease prevention programs. Participants on the Health Ministry Committee will help identify the needs and programs that will best serve this Faith Community. Topics could include health screenings, educational programs promoting whole person health, advocating for patients and connecting them with resources, listening (personal health counseling and advocating personal responsibility), training and coordinating volunteers and home and hospital visitation. There's always room for one more participant if you feel that you might be interested and most especially if you are a bilingual Hispanic member of the parish. Interested but can't make this meeting? Call 721-0388 so we can discuss your ideas. We hope to meet monthly. The time and day will be decided by the group. Please join us.
Thought for the Week: If you think that one individual can't make a difference in the world, consider what one cigar can do in a nine-room house. Bill Vaughn

DISCIPLES ON A FAITH JOURNEY

Lent is just around the corner. When we receive the ashes of Lent on our foreheads on Ash Wednesday, which is March 1st, we hear the words, "Repent and believe in the Gospel." This lent perhaps these words can mean, "Get a new vision and believe God's Good news for you."

We invite you to participate in the "Disciples on a Faith Journey" program which begins on March 6th. You will be hearing further information at Mass about this event, followed by sign-ups. Consider joining these intimate faith-sharing groups to let God's word have special power your life. This program focuses on energizing our parish and instilling an excitement in that we hope will be communicated to family, friends and others.

A new vision in the Gospel awaits you! Come and See!

To our parishioners:

For the past fourteen years, The Annual Catholic Appeal, formerly known as the Diocesan Stewardship Appeal, has sustained countless organizations that serve our most desperate and impoverished brothers and sisters.

The most fundamental calling of our Catholic Faith asks that we all take responsibility for those who suffer from poverty of mind, body or spirit. By the grace of God, we do this by sharing the time, talent and financial resources he has given each and everyone of us. We are called to do this as often as we can.

As you think about the level of participation you can afford this year, I ask that you prayerfully consider these important facts about this year's Appeal:

- Drastic cuts in private and public funding have left many community programs, including many operated by our Catholic social services, in imminent peril.
- 25% of your contribution will be returned to your own parish.

These funds can be used however your parish community feels would best assist the less fortunate in your neighborhood.

Thank you for your generosity over the years. You and your family are in my prayers.

Sincerely in Christ,

WILLIAM K. WEIGAND, Bishop of Sacramento
