

June 4, 2006 – Pentecost Sunday

"And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit." John 20:22

† Servant Leader †

Come, Holy Spirit!

Today is the feast of the Holy Spirit. We commemorate the coming down on the apostles of God, the third Person of the blessed Trinity. Before His coming, they had been timid and afraid, twisted with doubt and fear following the death of Christ on the cross. But on Pentecost, all was changed.

"There came a sound from heaven as a violent wind - there appeared tongues as of fire settling upon each of them and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit" (Acts 2:1-5) Filled with the Holy Spirit, Christ's promise had come true. "If I go, I will send Him to you. He, the Spirit of truth, will teach you all truth." (John 16)

New people walked out of that upper room after Pentecost. The spiritual babies had grown up; they had, in fact, become spiritual giants. Suddenly their faith became solid as stone, their love as deep as the sea. Rich wisdom was theirs, and selfless charity. Dauntlessly they preached the Gospel to every nation. Fearlessly they showed the crucified Christ to the world. Without hesitation, they faced beatings, prisons, and death itself.

Our confirmation day was literally the Pentecost of our life. "The effect of this Sacrament of Confirmation is to confer the Holy Spirit as He was conferred on the apostles on Pentecost day. As with the apostles, so with us, before confirmation we were infants in the Christian life. We were still weak and worldly and selfish and afraid; often denying Christ; often ashamed that we ever knew Him.

Then confirmation! This sacrament of Christian maturity was designed to make us grow up as a Christian. It conferred on each person the fullness of the Spirit of God. It fashioned us, as Pentecost fashioned the apostles, into soldiers of Christ and daring defenders of our faith.

Three effects followed automatically on reception of the sacrament of confirmation. First, we received an increase of sanctifying grace: a fuller participation in the very life of God. How much grace we received at that time depended largely of the dispositions of our souls and our openness to God.

Secondly, our soul was stamped with the sacramental character of confirmation. That indelible spiritual badge, ingrained on our soul forever, makes each of us a soldier of Christ and a sharer in the priesthood of Jesus.

Thirdly, we received special sacramental graces over and above the sanctifying grace which all the sacraments confer. These special graces, proper to Confirmation, were designed to help in the rough days which must inevitable come, when we need a special lift to be faithful. Confirmation has been traditionally linked with the virtues of hope and fortitude. Hope brings the conviction that a Catholic life is possible - that even sanctity can be reached. Fortitude brushes aside human obstacles and instills courage to start over bravely each day.

On Pentecost, think of the badge of your confirmation and stir up the graces of long ago. Perhaps you have left them lie dormant, but they are still waiting eagerly to be used.

"Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Thy love. Send forth Thy Spirit and they shall be created. And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth."

THANK YOU NOTE

Fr. Kiernan received the following note from the Sacramento Life Center:

"We wish to thank you for the wonderful participation our Mother's Day Rose Sale received from the parishioners at Holy Family Parish. The totals are in and we are pleased to share them with you! The parishioners at Holy Family Parish donated $2,302.00 to the Sacramento Life Center by purchasing 40 dozen roses. We have already received over $20,500.00 from a record number of churches who participated.

The money raised from this project helps us to continue to work with women who are facing an untimely pregnancy and offer real help and support to help them choose life for their unborn children.

Thank you again for allowing the Sacramento Life Center to sell roses after mass on Mother's Day. We look forward to having you participate again next year. Please keep us in your prayers!"

ASSISTED SUICIDE ALERT

The legalization of Assisted Suicide is unfortunately again being looked at by our State Legislators. The Bill, AB651, will go to the State Senate Judiciary Committee on June 5th.

"Euthanasia advocates the claim that assisted suicide would be restricted to a 'last resort' for people already on the verge of death and in unrelievable agony. These premises have already proven to be false. Most patients and their families are generally unaware that pain can be reduced or eliminated. Many people whose deaths have been hastened by euthanasia were not, in fact, terminally ill." (From a book review on Forced Exit by Wesley J. Smith.)

Margaret Sager of the Coalition of Concerned Medical Professionals, when testifying in opposition to the legalization of assisted suicide, stated that, "the notion of personal 'choice' in assisted suicide is patently absurd when treatment and adequate pain relief are actively denied."

Assisted suicide starts us on a deadly road of controlling health care costs. This issue will NOT go before the California voters – it will be decided by our legislators. Please contact your State Senator by logging on to savecalifornia.com and clicking on "Find your Legislators" or to find the names of key State Senators on this committee. We need to speak out and go against the pro-death culture of our times.

HOLY FAMILY LITURGY COUNCIL

The Holy Family Liturgy Council meeting scheduled for June 7th has been rescheduled. The meeting will be held in the rectory on Wednesday, June 14th at 6:00 pm.

DECISIONS SERIES WRAPS UP TODAY

If you missed any of the six bulletin inserts, please, can the Health Ministry office at 721-0388 to obtain copies.

COMMITTEE MEETING

As a reminder, the Health Ministry Committee will meet on Wednesday June 7th at 9:30 am in the Health Ministry Office -Community Center. Any interested folks are welcome and invited to attend.

SUMMER IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER!

Now is a good time to review a few simple healthful precautions before the temperature soars:

1. Protect yourself from the West Nile Virus! Apply an insect repellent with DEET. In addition, if you are out in the dawn or dusk hours of the day, wear long sleeved shirts and pants (with a tight weave fabric) when working in the yard, camping or hiking, etc. Empty containers filled with standing water to avoid mosquito breeding sites. An inch of standing water is an invitation to the mosquito population to set up housekeeping. Repair window and door screens to prevent mosquitoes from invading your homes.

2. Protect your skin from sunburn. Apply a sun block lotion or cream with a UV rating of 15 or higher. Read the instructions carefully. The lotion will need to be reapplied after swimming or extended periods of exposure to the sun. Wear a wide brimmed hat to protect your head, ears and neck from excessive sun exposure when participating in outdoor activities. Protect your eyes from bright sunlight with quality UV protective sunglasses. Blue eyed people are more sensitive to light and should protect their eyes from bright sunlight.

3. Keep yourself hydrated. Our bodies need 6-8 glasses of water each day (unless otherwise instructed by your doctor). Summer heat increases water loss through the skin-- perspiration. Consumption of alcohol and caffeinated beverages can also cause dehydration. Combined with the summer heat and excessive physical activity, it is essential to replace the fluid. WATER is an effective and inexpensive choice.

4. Swimming pool owners, check to see that your pool is secure and safe from adventurous youngsters. Check for loose fence boards, non-working gate latches, etc. Parents, swimming lessons given in toddler years can prevent years of heartbreak because of a drowning accident. Children slip into the water SO QUIETLY! Life preserver wear can be purchased for toddlers.

5. Treat yourself to a mini vacation at home. Set aside some ALONE time. A few minutes or an hour each day spent enjoying the quiet beauty of nature, reading and thoughtfully meditating on a passage from the Bible or just giving thanks to the Lord for all the wonderful things He has provided for your enjoyment will refresh your body and spirit. PEACE!

DIOCESAN CAPITAL CAMPAIGN UPDATE:

Preserving Our Past, Building Our Future Campaign still many months and millions of dollars away from completion. This past December 11th, Bishop Weigand celebrated Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament to thank every campaign donor. Whether you were there in person or in spirit, the magnificent surroundings of the newly-restored Cathedral were a dramatic testimony to the achievements that continue to unfold. Yet the campaign is many months and millions of dollars away from completion. As of December 31st, $47.7 million of the $77.3 million pledged has been collected. The generosity of all those participating in the Campaign is appreciated now more than ever. Full funding of the designated parish projects, endowments, formation/education goals, priests' retirement and social ministries depends on every family and parish that pledged its financial support.

Bishop Weigand expresses his continued appreciation for your dedication and generosity.
