Papal Message for World Food Day

It is important that we are aware of what is happening in the world and in our universal church. I hope you find the Holy Father's message helpful.

The annual celebration of World Food Day, sponsored by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO), is an opportunity to review the numerous activities of this Organization, specifically with regard to its twofold aim: to provide adequate nutrition for our brothers and sisters throughout the world and to consider the obstacles to this work caused by difficult situations and attitudes contrary to solidarity.

This year's chosen theme -- "Investing in agriculture for food security" -- focuses our attention on the agricultural sector and invites us to reflect on the various factors that hinder the fight against hunger, many of them man-made. Not enough attention is given to the needs of agriculture, and this both upsets the natural order of creation and compromises respect for human dignity.

In Christian tradition, agricultural labor takes on a deeper meaning, both because of the effort and hardship that it involves and also because it offers a privileged experience of God's presence and his love for his creatures. Christ himself uses agricultural images to speak of the Kingdom, thereby showing a great respect for this form of labor.

Today, we think especially of those who have had to abandon their farmlands because of conflicts, natural disasters and because of society's neglect of the agricultural sector. The "promotion of justice through efforts to bring about openness of mind and will to the demands of the common good is something which concerns the Church deeply" (Encyclical Letter "Deus Caritas Est," 28).

It is now ten years since my venerable predecessor, Pope John Paul II, inaugurated the World Food Summit. This gives us an opportunity to look back and take stock of the inadequate attention given to the agricultural sector and the effects this has on rural communities. Solidarity is the key to identifying and eliminating the causes of poverty and underdevelopment.

Very often, international action to combat hunger ignores the human factor, and priority is given instead to technical and socio-economic aspects. Local communities need to be involved in choices and decisions concerning land use, since farmland is being diverted increasingly to other purposes, often with damaging effects on the environment and the long-term viability of the land. If the human person is treated as the protagonist, it becomes clear that short-term economic gains must be placed within the context of better long-term planning for food security, with regard to both quantity and quality.

The order of creation demands that priority be given to those human activities that do not cause irreversible damage to nature, but which instead are woven into the social, cultural and religious fabric of the different communities. In this way, a sober balance is achieved between consumption and the sustainability of resources.

The rural family needs to regain its rightful place at the heart of the social order. The moral principles and values which govern it belong to the heritage of humanity, and must take priority over legislation. They are concerned with individual conduct, relations between husband and wife and between generations, and the sense of family solidarity. Investment in the agricultural sector has to allow the family to assume its proper place and function, avoiding the damaging consequences of hedonism and materialism that can place marriage and family life at risk.

Education and formation programs in rural areas need to be broadly based, adequately resourced and aimed at all age groups. Special attention should be given to the most vulnerable, especially women and the young. It is important to hand on to future generations not merely the technical aspects of production, nutrition and protection of natural resources, but the values of the rural world.

In faithfully carrying out its mandate, the FAO makes a vital investment in agriculture, not only through adequate technical and specialized support, but also by broadening the dialogue that takes place among the national and international agencies involved in rural development. Individual initiatives should be incorporated within larger strategies aimed at combating poverty and hunger. This can be of decisive importance if the nations and communities involved are to implement consistent programs and work towards a common goal.

Today more than ever, in the face of recurring crises and the pursuit of narrow self-interest, there has to be cooperation and solidarity between states, each of which should be attentive to the needs of its weakest citizens, who are the first to suffer from poverty. Without this solidarity, there is a risk of limiting or even impeding the work of international organizations that set out to fight hunger and malnutrition. In this way, they build up effectively the spirit of justice, harmony and peace among peoples: "opus iustitiae pax" (cf. Is 32:17).

With these thoughts, Director General, I wish to invoke the Lord's blessing upon FAO, its Member States, and upon all those who work so hard to support the agricultural sector and to promote rural development.

From the Vatican, 16 October 2006

BENEDICTUS PP. XVI

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

When we hear that 37 million Americans live in poverty - that many families are two paychecks away from becoming poor themselves - are we overwhelmed? Paralyzed? We can make a difference. We can give a hand up to people struggling to change their lives and communities. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development supports self-help projects of poor and low-income people working together to break the cycle of poverty. Please give generously to CCHD in today's collection.

CLRS # 11 FOOD DONATIONS FOR THE NEEDY

Please share the Lord's blessings with our less fortunate brothers and sisters. In keeping with years past we will place baskets around the altar during Thanksgiving Week. Items needed are as follows:

- tuna, peanut butter, jam or jelly, rice, pasta
- canned fruit, and canned vegetables.

Please do not drop donations off at the Parish Office. The Lord bless you for your kindness, generosity and continuing support in the work of our Society.

The readings today speak of the end of the world and the coming of the kingdom. The bishops' pastoral on stewardship says clearly that "the 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods - the worthy human purposes, which people foster now." May our good stewardship help us to be numbered among the chosen on the last day!

This week of Thanksgiving is also a very appropriate time for the HOLY FAMILY SCHOOL'S students to express to you, the parishioners of Holy Family, their thanks for your ongoing support of our parish school. May God abundantly bless you and those whom you love during this season!

Holy Family Conference

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

Summary of Annual Report (Oct 2005 to Sept 2006)

The Holy Family Conference of St. Vincent de Paul completed another year of service to those in need in our Parish on the 30th of September of this year. We reported the yearly results of our service to the National Council of St. Vincent de Paul. Highlights of our report are summarized below:

We spent 1463 hours in service, an increase of over 300 hours from last year. We made a total of 115 home visits, an increase of almost 25 from last year. We helped 364 people during our visits, an increase of almost 40 over last year. We spent $15,327 helping people in our parish, over $700 more than last year. The type of help we provided varies from family to family. Sometimes we provide items like furniture, appliances, household items, or clothing. Sometimes we help with rent or utilities. Occasionally, we provide temporary shelter and food.

We could not perform this mission of charity without the contributions from our parishioners. Of the $15,780 we received last year, over $10,000 was donated by you. The remainder of our funds came from our members, fund raising, and other nearby parishes. (We receive no monetary help from the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Store. The Thrift Store is run for the benefit of all parishes in the Sacramento Diocese.) In addition, the help we were able to give last year was increased by $3762 of items, like used furniture or appliances, donated by our parishioners, which we were able to pass on to needy families.

We would like to thank the parishioners of Holy Family for their continuing support of our ministry. We would also like you to prayerfully consider becoming a member of our conference. The need for our services continues to grow, but the membership in our conference has not. Your help would be a blessing to us, to those in need, and we sincerely believe, to you as well. If you would like more information about how you could be of service to others, call 722-0264, and one of us will be in touch.

ANNUAL SENIORS APPRECIATION DINNER - TODAY!

Today, Sunday November 19th, the Knights of Columbus are hosting our annual Seniors Appreciation Dinner in St. Joseph's Hall from 1:00-3:00. All seniors of our parish and their senior friends are invited for a wonderful meal of roast beef, turkey, potatoes, veggies, and all the trimmings! This is a cherished tradition in our parish, anticipated by all who have been our guests before. They especially enjoy all the DESSERTS (pies, cakes, and all sorts of goodies!) provided by the Knights and their Ladies. There is no cost as this is our thank you to you all.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS INVITE ALL CATHOLICS TO PRAY WITH POPE BENEDICT XVI

As a demonstration of solidarity with Pope Benedict XVI on the occasion of his upcoming pastoral visit to Turkey, 28 - Dec. 1, 2006, the Knights of Columbus is organizing a special "Spiritual Pilgrimage" for all Catholics, which aims generate prayers for the success of Pope Benedict's trip. While few will be able to physically travel to Turkey to participate in the Holy Father's visit, the goal is to unite millions of Catholics with the pontiff through their prayers. The Supreme Chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, Bishop William E. Lori, has composed a special prayer which all are encouraged to pray daily from the Sunday the pope's visit - November 26, the Solemnity Christ the King - and continuing until the Holy Father returns to the Vatican on Dec. 1.

The prayer below has been posted on www.kofc.org and has been widely distributed via e-mail. Thank you in advance for your support this important initiative.

Heavenly Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name, we humbly ask that you sustain, inspire, and protect your servant, Pope Benedict XVI, as he goes on pilgrimage to Turkey - a land to which St. Paul brought the Gospel of your Son; a land where once the Mother of your Son, the Seat of Wisdom, dwelt; a land where faith in your Son's true divinity was definitively professed. Bless our Holy Father, who comes as a messenger of truth and love to all people of faith and good will dwelling in this land so rich in history. In the power of the Holy Spirit, may this visit of the Holy Father bring about deeper ties of understanding, cooperation, and peace among Roman Catholics, the Orthodox, and those who profess Islam. May the prayers and events of these historic days greatly contribute both to greater accord among those who worship you, the living and true God, and also to peace in our world so often torn apart by war and sectarian violence.

We also ask, O Heavenly Father, that you watch over and protect Pope Benedict and entrust him to the loving care of Mary, under the title of Our Lady of Fatima, a title cherished both by Catholics and Muslims. Through her prayers and maternal love, may Pope Benedict be kept safe from all harm as he prays, bears witness to the Gospel, and invites all peoples to a dialogue of faith, reason, and love. We make our prayer through Christ, our Lord. Amen.
