"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." Mark 10:27 a letter from home...

POPE BENEDICT "ON BEING CHURCH"

Excerpts from Pope Benedict XVI, September 2009

The Second Vatican Council gave the Church a "more deeply considered definition." The Church, which originates in the Trinitarian God, is a mystery of communion. As communion, the Church is not merely a spiritual reality but lives in history, so to speak, in flesh and blood. The Second Vatican Council describes her "in the nature of sacrament a sign and instrument, that is, of communion with God and of unity among all men"

TWO KEY CONCEPTS

The very essence of sacrament is that the invisible is tangible in the visible and that the tangibly visible opens the door to God himself. The Church, we said, is a communion, a communion of people who, through the action of the Holy Spirit, form the People of God which is at the same time the Body of Christ.

Let us reflect a little on these two key words. The concept of "People of God" came into being and was developed in the Old Testament: to enter into the reality of human history, God chose a specific people, the People of Israel, to be his People. The intention of this particular choice is to reach, through a few, many people and through them to reach all. In other words the intention of God's specific choice is universality. Through this People, God enters into the reality of history.

And this openness to universality is achieved in the Cross and in Christ's Resurrection. In the Cross, St. Paul says, Christ broke down the wall of separation. In giving us his Body, he reunites us in this Body of his to make us one. In the communion of the "Body of Christ" we all become one people, the People of God, in which to cite St. Paul again, all are one and there are no longer distinctions or differences between Greek and Jew, the circumcised and the uncircumcised, the barbarian, the Scythian, the slave, the Jew, but Christ is all in all. He has broken down the wall of distinction between peoples, races and cultures: we are all united in Christ.

Thus we see that the two concepts "People of God" and "Body of Christ" complete each other and together form the New Testament concept of Church.

And whereas "People of God" expresses the continuity of the Church's history, "Body of Christ" expresses the universality inaugurated in the Cross and in the Lord's Resurrection. For us Christians, therefore, "Body of Christ" is not only an image, but a true concept, because Christ makes us the gift of his real Body, not only an image of it.

CHRIST UNITES US ALL IN THE SACRAMENT

... These communities must be taught to listen prayerfully to the word of God. Let us truly draw nourishment from listening, from meditating on the word of God. Our communities must not lack the knowledge that they are "Church", because Christ, the eternal Word of the Father, convokes them and makes them his People. Indeed, on the one hand faith is a profoundly personal relationship with God but on the other it possesses an essential community component and the two dimensions are inseparable.

If it is the Word that gathers the community, it is the Eucharist that makes it one body: "because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread" (1 Cor 10: 17). The Church, therefore, is not the result of an aggregation of individuals but of unity among those who are nourished by the one Word of God and the one Bread of Life.

Communion and the unity of the Church that are born of the Eucharist, are a reality of which we must be ever more aware. The Eucharist, as I have said, is the centre of parish life, and particularly of the Sunday celebration. Since the unity of the Church is born from the encounter with the Lord, the great care given to adoration and celebration of the Eucharist, enabling those who participate in it to experience the beauty of Christ's mystery is no secondary matter.

CHRISTIAN CHARITY

The witness of charity that unites hearts and opens them to ecclesial belonging should not be forgotten. Historians answer the question as to how the success of Christianity in the first centuries can be explained, the ascent of a presumed Jewish sect to the religion of the Empire, by saying that it was the experience of Christian charity in particular that convinced the world. Living charity is the primary form of missionary outreach. The word proclaimed and lived becomes credible if it is incarnate in behavior that demonstrates "solidarity and sharing", in deeds that show the Face of Christ as man's true Friend.

May the silent, daily witness of charity, promoted by parishes thanks to the commitment of numerous lay faithful continue to spread increasingly, so that those who live in suffering feel the Church's closeness and experience the love of the Father rich in mercy. Therefore be "Good Samaritans," ready to treat the material and spiritual wounds of your brethren.

BLOOD DRIVE REMINDER!

Our last blood drive for 2009 is quickly approaching. It will be on Sunday, November 1. More to follow.

CONSOLATION MINISTRY

Holy Family Consolation Ministry meets on the 1st and 3rd Tuesday of the month. The next meeting is Tuesday, October 20 from 5:00 to 7:30 PM. Please join us.

LIVING THE GOSPEL OF LIFE

40 DAYS FOR LIFE SEPTEMBER 23—NOVEMBER 1

Christians throughout the Sacramento Diocese are invited to take part in the national 40 Days for Life effort. In addition to peaceful prayer and fasting for an end to abortion, please consider volunteering to pray outside of the abortion facility at 2322 Butano Drive in Sacramento--the official site for the 40 Days for Life. People are praying there from 6:30 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday. There has been a great turnout from Holy Family for prayer in front of this abortion facility. Thank you, all who have participated! Holy Family parishioners will also be gathering outside the closest abortion facility to our parish, which is Planned Parenthood at 729 Sunrise in Roseville (near the Spaghetti Factory). To sign up for a time at the Roseville location, please contact Sally Fisher at 721-0378.

LEGISLATIVE ALERT: Congress is working on health care reform, but unless abortion funding is explicitly excluded, this bill could mean the biggest expansion of abortion in decades. Please call your Representative and Senators at 202-224-3121 and tell them that you do not want the health care reform bill to fund abortions.

Our senators are Barbara Boxer and Dianne Feinstein, and Representatives from this area are Dan Lungren (District 3) and Tom McClintock (District 4). For more information online, visit www.priestsforlife.org/legislation.

Sarah Smith is a young woman from California who survived an abortion after her twin brother was aborted. She now speaks publicly for the pro-life cause, and declares, "My mother's 'choice' was my death sentence." Sarah helps us put a face on the abortion issue. It's not about abstract concepts; it's about real people being destroyed.

Prayer Opportunities

WORLD APOSTOLATE OF FATIMA: Mondays after the 8:30 am Mass in St. Mary Hall. For information, please call Phyllis, 725-0218 or Phyllis, 725-5358.

VOCATIONS CROSS: If you are interested in taking the Vocation Cross home, please contact Young Stewart at 332-8732.

DOMINICAN LAITY AT HOLY FAMILY

Come and join us at 8:00 am on the first Saturday of each month in the chapel at Holy Family Church. We will pray the Liturgy of the Hours followed by Mass and the Dominican Rosary. Then our meeting will continue in St. Mary Hall with ongoing formation which this year will be "The Role of the Laity in the Church Today," from the writings of John Paul II and the teachings from Vatican II on the Laity. Join us in a way of life of prayer, the study of Sacred Truths, the sharing of our spiritual life and in apostolic outreach. For information, call Phyllis Sale: 725-5358.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION IN THE CHAPEL:

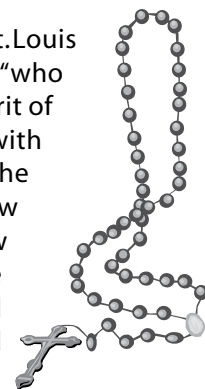

Fr. Pol wishes to build a revised list for adoration hours so that there are adorers before Jesus at all hours the chapel is open. One of the basic needs of adoration is that the truly present Christ Jesus never be left exposed in the chapel without adorers also present. Clipboards are available with sign-up sheets to fill all of the available hours. Please consider giving an hour the time that has been given to you to spend with Jesus in adoration and reflection – this is an opportunity to live your faith and express your love of the Lord. Please find the clipboards and leave your name and day of the week and hour you will participate and be present. Thank you for your support!

Chapel Hours are: Monday through Friday – 9:00 am to 9:00 pm; Saturday – 9:00 am to 3:00 pm; and, Sunday – 2:00 to 5:00 pm. If you have any questions, please call Lee Lambert at 723-8963. God Bless You!

OCTOBER ROSARY DEVOTION:

Mary, Queen of the Holy Rosary, calls us to pray the rosary, one of her most powerful and loved community prayers especially during the month of October since the feast of the Holy Rosary falls October 7th. Let's respond to her call especially by joining the community rosary recited in the chapel during October daily after the 8:30 a.m. daily Mass and before the Saturday 4:30 pm Mass (at 4:10) and the Sunday 12:30 pm Mass (at 12:10).

Pray the rosary! We all shall benefit by it! St. Louis Marie de Montfort stated that someone "who prays the rosary alone only gains the merit of one rosary, but, when someone prays it with a group of people, that someone gains the merits of all the people present." How profitable and advantageous is the law of public prayer, and especially before the glorious presence of Jesus exposed in the Holy Monstrance - his blessed sacrament on the altar!

ST JOSEPH PARISH PRESENTS: DAVE LEATHERBY

October 17, 1:30 – 3:30 pm, St. Joseph's Church, Lincoln
Prominent Sacramento Catholic, Dave Leatherby will be providing an inspirational message of faith, hope and trust in Our Loving God. His life's journey has been filled with hardships and emotionally painful trials and difficulties that would leave most of us without any strength, hope or trust in God. Come and hear this witness of faith that has borne such good fruit to include a miraculous event involving our diocesan priest, Fr. Jeremy Leatherby. Confessions 3:30 to 4:30 pm. Holy Mass, 5:00 pm. Contact information: Ken Austin, 408-8006 or Parish Office, 645-2102

GRAND ULTREYA MASS AT THE CATHEDRAL:

On Saturday, October 24 at 5:00 pm there will be a Grand Ultreya Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. It will be a special event with the new women Cursillistas being in attendance and sharing their witness about the weekend. There will also be music, fellowship, and a talk regarding one Cursillistas's passion for the Liturgy of the Hours. This is a wonderful event, being with the Bishop and other clergy who support Cursillo. Let's show our support for our new Cursillistas and be there for this special event. For more information, call Young Stewart at 332-8732.

"SACRED DANCE....KEEPING STEP WITH GODS' LEAD"

...is the topic of the fall women's workshop hosted by Zori Friedrich and Michele Kinaan to be held November 7th. Zori and Michele are active core team members of the women's ministry at Divine Savior Catholic Church. All women in the community are invited to participate in this interactive workshop which focuses on discerning how God's guidance is revealed in our lives. The workshop will be held at Christ the King Retreat Center from 9 to Noon. Cost: $25. To obtain a flyer or to register, contact Zori at 635-7791.

COMMUNITY CHAPLAIN PROGRAM

Sacramento's volunteer community chaplain program responds with law enforcement to homicides, suicides, drownings and other tragedies, providing profound comfort to traumatized survivors. It is the model program of its kind throughout the nation. If this is the kind of ministry to which you think you might be called, please visit www.sacchaplains.com or call 916-857-1801 for more information.

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

"What God has joined together, no human being must separate." Learn how to make your marriage unbreakable. The next Sacramento Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend will be held November 13-15.
