"The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy." Psalm 126:3

 a letter from home...

"WE HAVE SET OUR HOPE ON THE LIVING GOD"

Pope Benedict XVI — World Youth Day 2009

The question of hope is truly central to our lives as human beings and our mission as Christians, especially in these times. We are all aware of the need for hope, not just any kind of hope, but a firm and reliable hope. Youth is a special time of hope because it looks to the future with a whole range of expectations. When we are young we cherish ideals, dreams and plans. Youth is the time when decisive choices concerning the rest of our lives come to fruition. Perhaps this is why it is the time of life when fundamental questions assert themselves strongly: Why am I here on earth? What is the meaning of life? What will my life be like? And again: How can I attain happiness? Why is there suffering, illness and death? What lies beyond death? These are questions that become insistent when we are faced with obstacles that sometimes seem insurmountable: difficulties with studies, unemployment, family arguments, crises in friendships or in building good loving relationships, illness or disability, lack of adequate resources as a result of the present widespread economic and social crisis. We then ask ourselves: where can I obtain and how can I keep alive the flame of hope burning in my heart?

In search of "the great hope"

Experience shows that personal qualities and material goods are not enough to guarantee the hope which the human spirit is constantly seeking. Politics, science, technology, economics and all other material resources are not of themselves sufficient to provide the great hope to which we all aspire. This hope "can only be God, who encompasses the whole of reality and who can bestow upon us what we, by ourselves, cannot attain." This is why one of the main consequences of ignoring God is the evident loss of direction that marks our societies, resulting in loneliness and violence, discontent and loss of confidence that can often lead to despair.

My dear young friends, I have in mind so many of your contemporaries who have been wounded by life. They often suffer from personal immaturity caused by dysfunctional family situations, by permissive and libertarian elements in their education, and by difficult and traumatic experience. For some – unfortunately a significant number – the almost unavoidable way out involves an alienating escape into dangerous and violent behavior, dependence on drugs and alcohol, and many other such traps for the unwary. Yet, even for those who find themselves in difficult situations, having been led astray by bad role models, the desire for true love and authentic happiness is not extinguished. To you young people, who are in search of a firm hope, I address the very words that Saint Paul wrote to the persecuted Christians in Rome at that time: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit" (Rom 15:13).

Saint Paul, witness of hope

When Paul found himself immersed in difficulties and trials of various kinds, he wrote to his faithful disciple Timothy: "We have set our hope on the living God" (1 Tim 4:10). How did this hope take root in him? In order to answer that question we must go back to his encounter with the Risen Jesus on the road to Damascus. At that time, Saul was a young person like you in his early twenties, a follower of the Law of Moses and determined to fight with every means, and even to kill those he regarded as God's enemies (cf. Acts 9:1). While on his way to Damascus to arrest the followers of Christ, he was blinded by a mysterious light and he heard himself called by name: "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He fell to the ground, and asked: "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came: "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting" (Acts 9:3-5). After that encounter, Paul's life changed radically. He received Baptism and became an Apostle of the Gospel. On the road to Damascus, he was inwardly transformed by the Divine Love he had met in the person of Jesus Christ. He would later write: "The life I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me" (Gal 2:20). From being a persecutor, he became a witness and a missionary culminating in his martyrdom in Rome. All this for love of Christ.

The great hope is in Christ

For Paul, hope is not simply an ideal or sentiment, but a living person: Jesus Christ, the Son of God. Profoundly imbued with this certainty, he could write to Timothy: "We have set our hope on the living God" (1 Tim 4:10). The "living God" is the Risen Christ present in our world. He is the true hope: the Christ who lives with us and in us and who calls us to share in his eternal life. If we are not alone, if he is with us, even more, if he is our present and our future, why be afraid?

The way towards the great hope

Just as he once encountered the young Paul, Jesus also wants to encounter each one of you, my dear young people. Indeed, even before we desire it, such an encounter is ardently desired by Jesus Christ. But perhaps some of you might ask me: How can I meet him today? Or rather, in what way does he approach me? The Church teaches us that the desire to encounter the Lord is already a fruit of his grace. When we express our faith in prayer, we find him even in times of darkness because he offers himself to us. As Saint Augustine explains: "Our Lord and God ... wants our desire to be exercised in prayer, thus enabling us to grasp what he is preparing to give" (Letter 130:8, 17). Prayer is the gift of the Spirit that makes us men and women of hope, and our prayer keeps the world open to God

Stewardship

~ a way of life ~

WHAT IS STEWARDSHIP?

Stewardship is a way of living. It is a lifestyle, a life of total accountability and responsibility. It is the acknowledging of God as the creator and the owner of all. Christian stewards see themselves as the caretaker of all of God's gifts. Gratitude for these many gifts is expressed in our prayer, worship, offerings and action. Stewardship is a way of thanking God for all our blessings by returning to God a portion of the many gifts (our time, talent, and treasure) that we have been given.

STEWARDS OF THE CHURCH

As members of the Church, we are called to be disciples — followers of our Lord Jesus Christ.

This has astonishing implications:

- Mature disciples make a conscious decision to follow Jesus no matter what the cost.
- Christian disciples experience conversion — changes of mind and heart — and commit their very selves to the Lord.
- Christian stewards respond in a particular way to the call to be a disciple. Stewardship has the power to shape and mold our understanding of our lives and the way in which we live.

All members of the Church have a unique role to play in carrying out Christ's mission of proclaiming and teaching, serving and sanctifying:

- Parents by nurturing their children in the light of the faith
- Parishioners by working in concrete ways to make their parishes true communities of faith and vibrant sources of service to the larger community, and
- All Catholics by giving generous support — time in prayer, money and personal service to parish and diocesan programs and to the universal Church.

ADOPT A FAMILY FOR CHRISTMAS

Catholic Charities of Sacramento is seeking individuals or families interested in 'adopting' a local family in need for Christmas. Donors are asked to provide gifts as well as a grocery store gift card. This year we are anticipating that more families will be in need than ever before. Please call the Catholic Charities office at 916-733-0253 for more information. You may also visit our website at www.diocese-sacramento.org in the Social Service Ministry section to obtain a donor registration form or to apply online.

Christians throughout the Sacramento Diocese are invited to take part in the national 40 Days for Life effort. In addition to peaceful prayer and fasting for an end to abortion, please consider volunteering to pray outside of the abortion facility at 2322 Butano Drive in Sacramento--the official site for the 40 Days for Life. People are praying there from 6:30 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. Monday through Saturday. There has been a great turnout from Holy Family for prayer in front of this abortion facility. Thank you, all who have participated! Holy Family parishioners will also be gathering outside the closest abortion facility to our parish, which is Planned Parenthood at 729 Sunrise in Roseville (near the Spaghetti Factory). To sign up for a time at the Roseville location, please contact Sally Fisher at 721-0378.

LEGISLATIVE ALERT: Congress is working on health care reform, but unless abortion funding is explicitly excluded, this bill could mean the biggest expansion of abortion in decades. Our senators are Barbara Boxer and Dianne Feinstein, and Representatives from this area are Dan Lungren (District 3) and Tom McClintock (District 4). For more information online, visit www.priestsforlife.org/legislation.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION IN THE CHAPEL:

Fr. Pol wishes to build a revised list for adoration hours so that there are adorers before Jesus at all hours the chapel is open. Please consider giving an hour the time that has been given to you to spend with Jesus in adoration and reflection – this is an opportunity to live your faith and express your love of the Lord. Please find the clipboards and leave your name and day of the week and hour you will participate and be present. Thank you for your support!

SHEPHERDS FIELD OLIVE WOOD HANDCRAFTS

A group from the Holy Land (Bethlehem & Jerusalem) will be selling religious articles after Masses on October 31 and November 1 on behalf of the Christian Catholic families in Bethlehem. These families work in small workshops to produce religious articles from olive wood that represent the Christian art of the Holy Land. They were used to selling their products to pilgrims who visit the Holy Land but these days they face an economic hardship as there are few tourists because of security issues. Many of them immigrated and left the Holy Land. The percentage of Christians in the holy land has dropped to less than 2%. If this hardship continues as it is now, we believe in a few years there will be no Christian people in Bethlehem or Jerusalem, where Jesus was born. Sales will be used to help support the Catholics in the Holy Land and to encourage them not to immigrate. May God be with you and may God richly bless his people for now and forever. Amen.
