

April 11, 2010 – Divine Mercy Sunday - Second Sunday of Easter

“Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” John 20:21

 a letter from home...

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Today, Holy Family joins the universal church in celebrating Divine Mercy Sunday. In addition, a diocesan Mass will be celebrated today, Sunday April 11, at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:00 p.m.

Pope John Paul II established the Second Sunday of Easter as “Divine Mercy Sunday.” Following the celebration of the Holy Triduum, Easter Sunday and the Octave of Easter, the Second Sunday of Easter draws attention to God’s infinite mercy poured out on mankind through the Paschal Mystery of our Savior’s death and resurrection.

The inspiration for the celebration of Divine Mercy on the Octave day of Easter goes back to the early centuries of the Church. For example, St. Gregory of Nazianzen wrote about it. For St. Augustine, the Octave Sunday of Easter climaxes our “creation in grace” through the mercy of Christ’s Easter victory and is the “most privileged octave-day.” The Divine Mercy was a frequent theme of Pope John Paul II.

In this column last year, we shared Bishop Weigand’s answers to frequently asked questions about Divine Mercy Sunday. We share them with you again today:

What is Divine Mercy?

It is a “new” devotion in the Catholic Church extolling the virtues of God’s infinite mercy.

How is it “new”?

New forms of worship towards God’s mercy were revealed to a humble Polish nun in the 1930’s. Sister Marie Faustina Kowalska received visions and locutions from Jesus himself which she recorded in her diary.

What are the new forms of worship?

Jesus appeared to Faustina and asked her to have His image painted and venerated throughout the world. He promised that all those who did so would be protected in this life and especially at the hour of death. Jesus also taught Faustina a new prayer called the chaplet that is said on the rosary and is especially effective when offered for the sick, suffering and dying. He promised that he would stand between the dying person and the Father as the merciful Savior. Jesus requested a feast day of mercy to be celebrated on the Sunday after Easter. He promised that those who would receive communion on that day in the state of grace would be forgiven all their sins AND ALL PUNISHMENT DUE TO SINS. The Church has granted a plenary indulgence as well.

Has this devotion been approved by the Church?

Pope John Paul II himself was instrumental in examining the legitimacy of these claims and over a period of 30 years brought Faustina through the process of sainthood. She was canonized the first saint of the new millennium on April 5, 2000. On that same day, the pope declared the Sunday after Easter to be Divine Mercy Sunday authorizing its celebration in the universal church. Pope John Paul II died on the vigil of Divine Mercy Sunday in April of 2005.

As simple as ABC

The message of mercy is that God loves us — all of us — no matter how great our sins. He wants us to recognize that His mercy is greater than our sins, so that we will call upon Him with trust, receive His mercy, and let it flow through us to others. Thus, all will come to share His joy. It is a message we can call to mind simply by remembering ABC.

- A: Ask for His Mercy. God wants us to approach Him in prayer constantly, repenting of our sins and asking Him to pour His mercy out upon us and upon the whole world.
- B: Be merciful. God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others. He wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us.
- C: Completely trust in Jesus. God wants us to know that the graces of His mercy are dependent upon our trust. The more we trust in Jesus, the more we will receive.

How can I learn more about the Divine Mercy Devotion?

There is a congregation of Marian priests in Stockbridge, Massachusetts, who have established the National Shrine of Divine Mercy and are the leading publisher of Divine Mercy materials. They can be reached on the internet at www.marian.org. Or visit www.divinemercysunday.com.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY AT THE CATHEDRAL

The special Divine Mercy Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament will be celebrated at 3:00 pm today, preceded by confessions at 2:15 and the recitation of the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 2:45. A blessing by Bishop Soto with the relic of St. Faustina will immediately follow the Mass.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL UPDATE

As of an April 6th report, 524 individuals or families have participated at our parish. The donations total $69,639, of which we will receive 25%. That is just over $17,409 we can use to help those most desperately in need here in our neighborhood. This year, these funds are allocated to outreach ministries to the poor.

If you have not yet participated in the 2010 Annual Catholic Appeal by sharing whatever you can from your financial blessings this year, envelopes are available at the parish or you may donate online at www.diocese-sacramento.org. Either way, your donation will help dozens of programs as well as our own outreach to those in need. Thank you for your continued generosity to our church and the people of our community.

CATHOLIC HOME MISSIONS: TWO WEEKS AWAY

On the weekend of April 24-25, our parish will be taking up a collection for the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. This Appeal supports missions here in the United States. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal supports religious education and seminary training to bring increased pastoral care to our home mission parishes. Please give generously in this Appeal. More information next week.

Teach Kids to Protect Themselves at Home

We consider our homes to be safe places for our children. But being home alone can pose risks for children. Here are a few tips to teach kids that will help keep them safe when you are not with them at home:

- Never answer the door if alone.
- Do not invite anyone in the house without the permission of a parent or guardian.
- Don't tell anyone on the phone that your parents are not home. Instead tell them that your parents cannot come to the phone and take a message.

For more tips, visit www.kidsafe.com.

"As chief teachers in the church, we must therefore explain, persuade, correct and admonish those in leadership positions who contradict the Gospel of life through their actions and policies. Catholic public officials who disregard Church teaching on the inviolability of the human person indirectly collude in the taking of innocent life."

US Bishops, Living the Gospel of Life. 1998, n. 29.

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

Since the chapel was closed in December our Pastor, Father Pol, has had it redecorated. A new carpet was installed, the brick walls were painted, the furnishings were rearranged and a beautiful large crucifix was added. The chapel looks elegant - a wonderful tribute to Jesus.

In previous bulletins, it stated that our Adoration program would begin in the very near future, and now that time has arrived. A special celebration was held in the chapel to honor the return of the exposition of the Blessed Sacrament! A friend of Fr. Pol from Lincoln built a beautiful oak cabinet to hold the holy Blessed Sacrament in the Monstrance, which was recently polished, and the lighted cabinet emphasizes the glory of Jesus in His Blessed Sacrament. The cabinet is grounded on a matching oak wood table. Come and see! Be a witness to this beautiful sight!

Our Adoration hours are the following:

Weekdays: Mon. thru Friday, 9:00 am – 9:00 pm

Weekends: Saturdays, 9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Sundays, No adoration (chapel open for prayer)

We still need more adorers, especially during each hour from 1-7. Can you please consider sparing an hour of your time during the week for Jesus who gives all His time for us. God bless you! Call Lee at 723-8963 or place your name on the adoration chart at the hour you choose.
